Rotary International 2009–2010 Theme

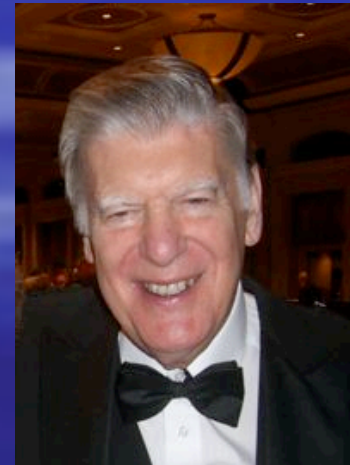

“The Future of Rotary is in your Hands”

It ALL begins with the CLUBS ...

"Everything begins and ends with our clubs. Our clubs can and do work together; they work through their own districts, in cooperation with other clubs and districts, and with the support of our Foundation."

John Kenny
2009-2010 RI President

Rotary is indeed “international” ...

As of March, 2009, there were:

- ~ 1,216,264 members
- ~ 33,242 clubs
- ~ 534 districts
- ~ 210 countries (& geographical territories)

2009 – 2010

Areas of Emphasis

- Water Resources
- Health & Hunger
- Literacy

Membership Goals

- ~ Net increase of 1 member per club
- ~ 80% member retention rate
- ~ Add 1-2 new club(s) in the District

The Rotary Foundation

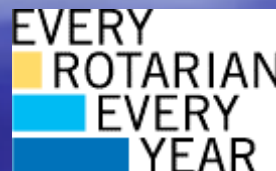

- * Support the “End Polio Now” campaign

- * Work with the Future Vision Plan’s six areas of emphasis

1. Peace & conflict resolution/prevention
2. Disease prevention and treatment
3. Water and sanitation
4. Maternal and child health
5. Basic education and literacy
6. Economic and community development

- * Support

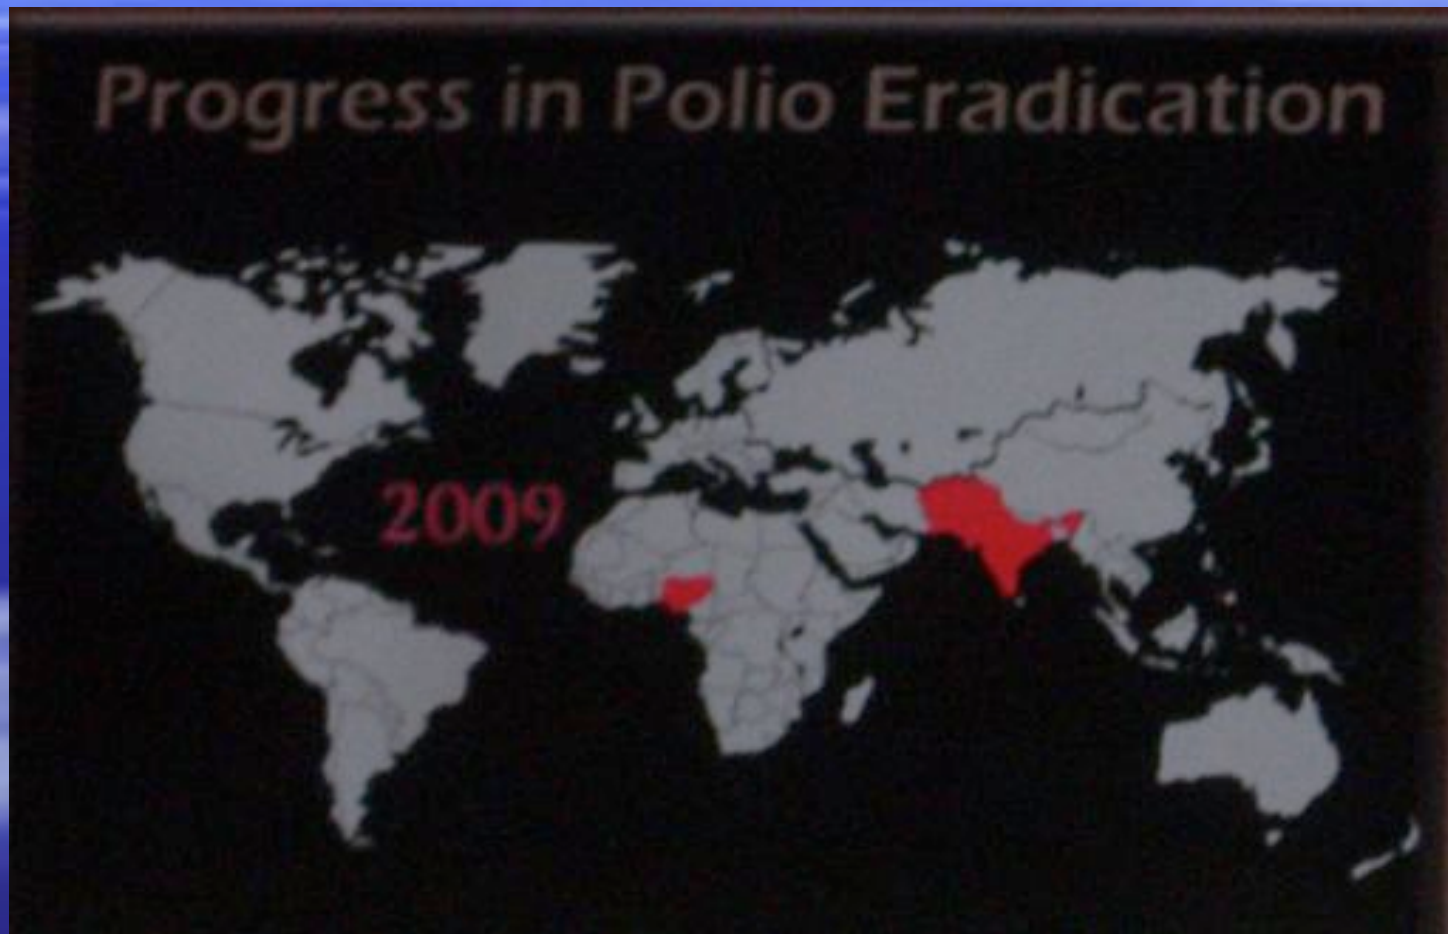

and the Permanent Fund

Polio cases ... then

... and now

Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

Membership

The screenshot shows the website for the Rotary Club of Cedar Rapids West. The header includes the club name, "Chartered 1980", "District 3970, Cedar Rapids, Iowa", and the motto "Service Above Self". A navigation menu on the left lists options like "Return to Public Site", "Member Area", "Members Home Directory", "New Members", "Constitution & By-Laws", "Board Minutes", "Club Goals", "Committees", "Sponsors", "Return to Public Site", and "Administration Login". The main content area is titled "New Members" and features a welcome message: "Please welcome the following new members to Cedar Rapids West Rotary. They will be wearing red name badges for their first six months to help you find them. Take the time to read their bios in the directory or better yet, introduce yourself and get to know about our newest members firsthand." Below this, two new members are listed with their photos, names, classifications, and induction dates.

Name	Classification	Induction Date
Mike Wiethorn	Rockwell - Analyst	June 17, 2009
Lisa Howard	Marketing - Non Profit	April 22, 2009

- Goal is to end 2009-2010 year with 5 additional members
- Continue to build on the membership work done over the past 2 years
- A new emphasis in 2009-2010 on orientation, get new members involved
