Eight Cedar Rapids West Rotarians Achieve Paul Harris Fellow Status

The Rotary Club of Cedar Rapids West is pleased to announce Terri Wendler, Kirk Leiffert, Mary Schneekloth, Steve Bowman, James Nelson, Everett Krug, John Morris and Jim Sauter have achieved the prestigious Paul Harris Fellow award. Dr. William C. Jacobson, District 5970 Rotary Governor and charter member of Cedar Rapids West presented the awards. The Paul Harris Fellow is in honor of the Rotary's founder Paul Harris and given to those who have contributed $1,000 or more to the Rotary Foundation.

Cedar Rapids West Rotary has 113 active members and exemplifies the Rotary motto of "Service Above Self" with both local and international projects. Local projects include assistance in community flood recovery, annual scholarships for Kirkwood Community bound students and Rockin' Reading program at Van Buren Elementary School.

Rotary is an organization of business and professional leaders united worldwide who provide humanitarian service, encourage high ethical standards in all vocations, and help build goodwill and peace in the world. In more than 160 countries worldwide, approximately 1.2 million Rotarians belong to more than 30,000 Rotary clubs.

Rotary club membership represents a cross-section of the community's business and professional men and women. The world's Rotary clubs meet weekly and are nonpolitical, nonreligious, and open to all cultures, races, and creeds.
